

Life On The Edge

The Pharisees plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech.
 "Teacher, tell us, is it lawful to pay Caesar or not?"
 Jesus replied, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin." Jesus said to them,

GIVE TO CAESAR
 WHAT IS CAESAR'S

Say to all the nations:
 The LORD is King, he governs the peoples with equity.

BUT GIVE TO GOD
 WHAT IS GOD'S

Today the Church throughout the world is celebrating 'World Mission Sunday'. On this day we are asked to remember our Christian missionaries. Thousands of men and women are giving their lives in love to the millions of men and women who need to be nourished both with bread for their bodies, and with the bread of life for their spirits. Unfortunately, out of sight often means out of mind. When we don't know any missionaries, when we don't hear about them too much, we can easily forget the absolutely essential and life-giving work that they are doing. That's why we need days like today. Our mission is not only to preach the Gospel in more places and to more people. We are called, through the power of the Gospel, to upset humanity's false values, to fight against misguided and dangerous thinking, to expose hazardous models of living and superficial lifestyles. We have become a more tolerant community in the last forty or so years, but there is a danger that we are giving up our essential mission of transforming humanity. Tolerance is surely a virtue, but tolerating what is evil is surely a vice. That is why we need to be a missionary Church. There are still many countries where the authorities do not believe in the dignity of the human person. They would laugh if you told them that we are created in God's image, all equal and deserving of the greatest respect. The Gospel message of love, concern and compassion is just as compelling today as it was when Jesus first walked this earth. Today we are asked to express our solidarity with all Missionaries. We do this through our prayers for them, our increased understanding of their work, and our financial support so that they can bring more life and health to our brothers and sisters everywhere. Peace, Fr. John Vella (Oct. 19, 2008)
